Numb. 1638

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday July 28. to Monday August 1. 1681.

Vienna, July 24.

FRom Oedenburg we have an account, That the Palatines Secretary who was sent to Count Teckeley, was returned, and had given the Dyet an account, that Count Teckeley had declared, That they could not approve the Choice that had been made of a Palatin; That they only desired that the antient Laws and Priviledges of the Kingdom should be restored, and that the Moneys they had promised yearly to the Turks, should be paid. In the mean time, the two Armies, that of the Emperors, commanded by Count Caprara, and that of the Rebels, lie very near each other; and if the Cessation of Arms be not renewed, we may expect to hear very quickly of some Action between them. We are told that the Turks are drawing together a great Body of Men near Caprenits, in Croatia.

Francfort, July 30. The Sieur Straetman, one of the Emperors Commissioners for the Conferences that are to be held in this City, is expected here in few days. From Ratisbonne, we have an account, That the Elector Palatin, the Landgrave of Hessen Darmstadt, and the Counts of Wetteravia, have laid before the Dyet, a particular of what they have suffered by the French, since the conclusion of the Peace of Nimeguene.

Brussels, August 1. We have Letters from Luxemburg, of the 30th past, which give no account of the arrival of the Express, which carried the Prince of Parma's Orders for the yielding of Chiny, but tell us that the French Troops lay dispersed up and down that Country, and that they could see their Quarters from the Walls of the City of Luxemburg. Yesterday arrived here from Holland, Collonel d' Averne, and this Morning the Prince of Parma called an extraordinary Council, which makes it believed, the said Collonel came about some Business of importance. The Count de Montbron, with the Forces under his Command, making a Body of about 6000 Men, continues Encamped at Pont Epieres, and its supposed will do so till he has an account that the Prince of Parma's Orders concerning Chiny are Executed. In the mean time the Prince of Parma is doing what he can to put these Countries into a posture of Defence: He gives out Commissions daily for the raising of Men, and has made an Agreement with certain Persons, who are in two Months time to provide 3000 Horses. And besides what is to be raised here and in Germany, we expect 3000 Foot from Spain.

Hague, August 5. The States of Holland and West-Frizeland, are Adjourned till Wednesday come Sevennight. The Princess of Orange is gone to Soestdike, where her Highness will continue till the Prince is returned from England. There are Letters from the Elector of Brandenburg's Court, which inform us, That as well his Electoral Highness as his Ministers, had declared to the Count de Rabenac, the French Envoy, that if the King his Master continued to Treat the States of the Empire, and particularly the Elector Palatine, as he had of late done, he would find that there were Princes enough in the Empire that could not bear it, and would take such Measures as may be necessary for their common Peace and Security; and that the Count de Rabenac had promised that he would represent the same to the King his Master.

Windsor, July 27. An humble Address from the County Palatine of Lancaster, and from the Town of Harwich, have been presented to His Majesty, by his Grace the Duke of Albemarle. Several other Addresses have likewise been presented to His Majesty.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, and Grand Jury, within the County Palatine of Lancaster, unanimously agreed upon and Signed at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at the Castle of Lancaster, in, and for the said County, the 12th day of July, in the thirty third Year of Your Majesties Reign; being the first Sessions next after the receiving and reading of Your Majesties Gracious Declaration.

May it please Your most Sacred Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Obedient and Loyal Subjects, being highly sensible of our great Felicity, as living both in the best Reformed Church, and under the most just, easie, and best Constituted Monarchy in the World, and having (according to the full desire of our Hearts) received an additional Joy and Happiness, by the repeated assurance of Your Majesties gracious Resolutions to Protect the true Protestant Religion, by the Law of England now Established, and to preserve the Liberties and Properties of Your good Subjects, and by frequent Parliaments, as occasion requires, to redress our Grievances; and that as You will not Rule by an Arbitrary Power your Self, so not to suffer it in others; but in all things to Govern according to these Excellent Laws of the Kingdom, which are even such as we our selves, and others, the Commons of the Land, have prayed Your Sacred Majesty, and your Royal Ancestors to consent unto. In testimony of our unfeigned Gratitude, we with all Humility, do take this first Opportunity to declare to Your Majesty and the whole World, our sincere Resolutions, with the hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, according to our bounden Duty, to defend Your Sacred Person, and Royal Prerogative, and to shew our selves Faithful to Your Majesty, Your Heirs, and Lawful Successors, and firm to the Protestant Religion by Law established, against all Popish Plots, and Phanatical Practices whatsoever.

And

And when in your Princely Wiſdom You ſhall think fit to call another Parliament, we will endeavour the Election of ſuch Repreſentatives, as will be ready to ſupport the preſent Government with neceſſary Supplies, ſuch who will be zealous to ſerve their King and Church, and their Country, in ſeeking their Safety, Honour, and Intereſt. We are

Great SIR,

Your Majeſties moſt Obedient Subjects, and Humble Servants.

To the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſties Burrough of Harwich, in the County of Eſſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſties truly Loyal, Faithful, and Obedient Subjects, moſt humbly and thankfully acknowledge the great Benefits and Immunities, we amongſt others of Your Majeſties Corporations enjoy, by the gracious Conceſſions of your Majeſty and Royal Predeceſſors, but eſpecially we are bound to bleſs and praiſe God for your Majeſties happy and miraculous Reſtauration; whereby we not only enjoy the beſt of Princes, but alſo our Religion, Liberties and Properties, and all that ought to be dear to good Chriſtians, and Loyal Subjects. And alſo, We humbly thank Your Majeſty for your Majeſties moſt gracious and gentle Government, and for your Majeſties Reſolution, that notwithſtanding many Provocations, your Majeſty will ſtill Govern in all things according to the Laws of the Kingdom, nor ought we to forget Your Majeſties many gracious Offers for the Security of the Proteſtant Religion as it is now Eſtabliſhed and to do the beſt endeavour to extirpate Popery, and to meet with your People in frequent Parliaments. And we do moſt humbly and heartily thank your Majeſty, for your Majeſties moſt gracious late Declaration, and therein for your Majeſties Grace and Goodneſs in declaring, That as your Majeſty will not uſe any Arbitrary Power your Self, ſo You will not ſuffer it in others, to the great Prejudice of your People. And when we have duly weighed and conſidered all the Benefits we have received by your Majeſties moſt gracious and gentle Government, we cannot on our parts anſwer it to God Almighty, your Majeſty, and our own Conſciences, unleſs we joyn all our beſt endeavours to make all dutiful returns of chearful Obedience, and ſtedfaſt Loyalty; nor can we chuſe but with grief of Heart be ſenſible, that ſome evil and ſeditious Men, have endeavoured to make a miſunderſtanding betwixt your Majeſty and your People, deſiring to Plunge us into the ſame Confuſion we were delivered from, by your Majeſties happy Reſtauration.

We therefore your Majeſties truly Loyal and Obedient Subjects, do unanimouſly from our Hearts declare, and are reſolved, that we will with our Lives and Fortunes, according to our Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and our Duty by all Laws, Natural, Humane, and Divine defend your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, and all your Majeſties juſt Rights and Prerogatives, the Proteſtant Religion, as it is now Eſtabliſhed in the Church of England, againſt all your Majeſties Enemies, of what Perſuaſion ſoever. And we ſhall ever humbly pray for your Majeſties Long, Happy, Peaceable, and Proſperous Reign over us. And we do hope all your Majeſties Loyal and good Subjects, will joyn with us in theſe our Prayers and Reſolutions. Given under our Hands and Seal of this Burrough, the 22d day of July, Anno. Dom. 1681.

To the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury for the County of Salop, in the name of themſelves and the ſaid County, at the publick Seſſions of the Peace, held in Shrewsbury, the 12th day of July in the thirty third year of His Majeſties Gracious Reign.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty.

WE your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, being ſenſible of the great Bleſſings which this Kingdom hath enjoyed ever ſince Your happy Reſtauration, and of your Royal Favour and Gracious Condeſcenſion in your late Declaration, of your ſteady Reſolution to preſerve the Proteſtant Religion as now eſtabliſhed by Law; and likewiſe to maintain the Liberties and Properties of your Subjects, doe unanimouſly and heartily Declare, that we will Defend your Majeſties Sacred Perſon and Government, with our Lives and Fortunes.

Agreed by us, whoſe Names are ſubſcribed, Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County, that this Addreſs be humbly preſented to His Majeſty.

To the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious and Dread Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your Town of Shrewsbury, in the County of Salop, your Majeſties moſt Loyal Subjects, do in all humble manner moſt ſincerely and heartily render unto your Majeſty, our humble acknowledgment, and unfeigned Thanks for your high and Princely Favour, in freely Declaring unto your Subjects your Majeſties moſt Royal Reſolution, Endeavour, and Readineſs to preſerve the eſtabliſhed Religion, Monarchy, and your Subjects Liberty and Property, to extirpate Popery, to have frequent Parliaments, to redreſs Grievances, to ſettle the Peace of Church and State, and Govern according to Law.

And we do further cordially and faithfully aſſure your moſt Gracious Majeſty, that you ſhall not therein only, but alſo for preſervation of your Majeſties Sacred Perſon be aſſiſted by our real Affections, Prayers, Actions and Endeavours to our utmoſt Powers; and to the adventure and hazard of our terreſtrial enjoyments; we well-knowing by our late ſad experience, that if Monarchy ſhould be ſhaken off (which God forbid) we ſhould loſe Religion, Liberty, Property, yea and our Lives; and for your Majeſties further ſatisfaction of the reality of our hearts therein, we do under our Hands atteſt the ſame; and that we are, and will continue, Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

To the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury, and Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Hertford, at the Aſſizes held there July the 14th, 1681.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects of your County of Hertford, no leſs ſenſible then others of your Majeſties good Subjects of your moſt juſt and moderate Government manifeſted by ſo many Teſtimonies ſince your Majeſties happy Reſtauration; and particularly by your Princely Care and Goodneſs expreſſed towards your People, in Your late moſt gracious Declaration, in thoſe great aſſurances You are pleaſed therein to renew unto us, of making the known Laws of this Realm the Rule and Standard of your Actions, and of diſcouraging the leaſt tendency to Arbitrary Power in others, do with all Humility and Duty return your Majeſty our moſt hearty and unfeigned Thanks for the ſame: Humbly beſeeching your Majeſty to accept from us our firm Reſolutions to adhere to your

Majeſty

Majesty, Your Lawful Heirs and Successors, with our All, both Lives and Estates, in the Preservation of your Sacred Person, Power and Government in Church and State, as now Established by Law, against all Opposers whatsoever: Being infinitely satisfied, that the Defence of, and Loyalty to your Sacred Majesty, are as much our Duty as it is our Interest, and the only means to Establish the present, and Secure the future Happiness of your Kingdom. May your Life and Reign, Great SIR, be long and Prosperous, and that on your Head (and in the Right Line after You) the Crown may for ever Flourish, is the Prayers of your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

Hampton-Court, July 28. This day the Right Honourable the Earl of Berkeley presented to His Majesty a most Loyal Address from the County of Surrey.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Grand Jury for the County of Surrey, at the Assizes held at Kingston, this 20th day of July, Ann. Dom. 1681.

Great SIR,

YOur Majesties late Gracious Declaration, upon the dutiful Confidence, which we, and all your good Subjects have in Your Royal Word, hath so fully answered all our hopes, and anticipated all our wishes, that we conceive there is nothing further left us to desire, than that your Majesty may long continue what you are, a most Indulgent and Beloved Prince; and we, what we sincerely profess, and joyfully acknowledge our selves to be, Your Majesties Obedient and happy Subjects. So that the Design of this our present Humble application, is to discover our sense of the Happiness we enjoy under Your Majesties Government, and to let the World see we will not be diverted or deterred from any decent, or seasonable expression of our Duty and Allegiance; notwithstanding many late Pamphlets, and little tricks of Popular Rhetorick, have been used on purpose to discountenance and expose Loyal Addressers. We are ashamed that the practices of some few factious Men, should make it necessary for us to express what always ought to be supposed and granted, that good Subjects are sensible of the Blessings of a just Government; and we beg your Majesty to be assured, that our Zeal for Your Majesties service, hath kept pace with that of the most early Addressers, though in a modest imitation of Your Majesties Resolutions of acting according to Law; we have forborn thus publickly to Declare it, till we were legally qualified so to do.

And therefore as in the time of the late Rebellion, many Gentlemen of the best Characters of this your County of Surrey, did to their utmost hazard, and with the loss of some of their Lives, assert their Loyalty, by Petition, on behalf of Your Royal Father, to the late Usurped Power: So at this time we the Grand Jury for the Body of this County, do humbly presume to assure your Majesty, that our Lives and Fortunes are entirely Devoted to the Service of Your Majesties Person and Crown, in its legal Descent, to your rightful Heirs and Successors, the preservation of the Protestant Religion and Government, as by Law established in Church and State; in opposition to the Hellish contrivances of undermining Papists, and restless Dissenters.

The High Sheriff and the Justices of the Peace for this County, do concurr in this Address, being present at the Assizes, and do unanimously and cordially subscribe our Names to it.

Windsor, July 30. We published in our last, an Address from the County of Carmarthen, which had been presented to His Majesty by Ron Lind Gwyn, Esq; one of the Justices of the Peace of the said County; Since, the following Address from the County-Burrough of Carmarthen, has been presented to His Majesty.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Sheriffs and Burgers of the County-Burrough, of Carmarthen, and Commonalty of the same.

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Sheriffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the County Burrough of Carmarthen (a Town of constant unblemisht Loyalty, in the late miserable times of Rebellion) are sincerely apprehensive of the inexpressible Blessings of the best Reformed Religion, for Doctrine and Discipline, our Laws, Liberties, Properties, Secure Commerce, Peace and Plenty, comfortably enjoyed, next to the Divine Goodness, by the influence of the Care, Prudence, and Protection of your Majesties Government, which had been for many years before your Majesties happy Restauration insolently inviolated, desperately invaded by varieties of changes in illegal, tyrannical Usurpations under specious pretences (the Masques of seditious Designs) with dutiful, grateful Souls, we humbly acknowledge our abundant satisfaction in the reiterated assurances in your Gracious Speeches in the two last Parliaments Assembled, in your transcendently signal Declaration, imprinted by indelible Characters in our Hearts, of your Sacred Majesties fixed Resolution, not to warp from the defence of the Protestant Religion, established by Law in this Kingdom, as not to practice your self, so not to permit in others in any capacities separated, or convened Subjects, any Arbitrary exercises, exorbitancies of Power; that we may be Governed by certain known Laws, not by uncertain, every day mutable Votes; a pressure that we dismally languished under, when Monarchy was ecclips'd; for the bright luster thereof, and the just continuance to be transmitted to succeeding Generations; we all, as we are bound by our Duties and Oaths, readily sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, in opposition and detestation of all Traiterous and Factious Conspiracies, Popish or Phanatical.

Though other Burroughs have got the start to precede in the time of their Addresses, yet none can excell us in devoted, unstained, oblequious Affections towards your Majesty: to whom God Grant a long and prosperous Reign over us, and victorious over all your Enemies. It is our Principle and Maxim, That the Honour of the King is the safety of the Kingdom.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Right Honourable William Earl of Craven, Your Majesties Lieutenant of the County of Middlesex, and City and Liberties of Westminster; the Deputy-Lieutenants, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Lieutenants, Ensigns, and other inferior Officers of the Militia of the said County, City and Liberties.

May it please Your Sacred Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do acknowledge it to have been a transcendent Grace and Favour in Your Majesty and Royal Predecessors, Kings and Queens of this Kingdom, that Your Government is setled by Laws; We further acknowledge, that Your Majesty hath an indubitable Right and Power, both of Scepter and Sword, to compel Obedience to those Laws; This Sword
